I am aware that the provision of the services that are the subject of the agreement dated _____ may only be carried out due to my being an eligible client and without the service providers being holders of an investment management license.

Moreover, I hereby confirm that it has been explained to me and that I understand the significance arising from the fact that I have been defined as an Eligible Client, including that – pursuant to the Consulting Law – the company is "exempted" from the following obligations prescribed therein (without derogating from its obligations under this agreement):

- the obligation to be licensed in order to provide investment portfolio consulting, marketing and management;
- the obligation to adapt the service to the client's needs;
- the obligation to make proper disclosure in connection with matters that are material to the consulting or marketing services provided by the company;
- the prohibition against giving preference to financial assets of the company or a related corporation;

- obligations relating to transactions involving special risks, as these are defined in the aforesaid law;
- the prohibition on conditioning a fee on the generation of a gain from a transaction performed for the client;
- the obligation to keep records of transactions.

It is hereby clarified that it is possible that additional and/or alternative exemptions may be applied in relation to that set forth above, and all in accordance with the provisions of the law.

I am aware that should the company implement one or more of the obligations set forth above, then it does so solely on a voluntary basis and that by doing so it does not become subject to a legal obligation to do so.

In witness whereof I have placed my signature:
