1) The net IRR shown above is reflective of a "Time Zero Methodology" which is hypothetical and represents a time-adjusted method of calculating IRR in which cash flows from various periods are re-ordered and represents all Specialty Finance investments (ex-residential credit) in a selection of PIMCO private strategies. Refer to Appendix for additional information regarding hypothetical asset class track records.

2) Represents all residential loan investments held by a PIMCO residential mortgage strategy. While PIMCO has invested in residential loans through various other vehicles, this representative subset has been sourced exclusively from one selected PIMCO strategy. Loss ratio on residential investments is based on all private whole loan investments sourced by PIMCO's U.S. private residential credit investment desk from January 2014 to September 2024 and is annualized. Refer to Appendix for additional information regarding hypothetical asset class track records.

3) The net IRR shown above is reflective of a "Time Zero Methodology" which is hypothetical and represents a time-adjusted method of calculating IRR in which cash flows from various periods are re-ordered for PIMCO commercial real estate debt strategies. Refer to Appendix for additional information regarding hypothetical asset class track records.

4). Represents all Private Corporate Lending investments within PIMCO's private strategies that have invested in corporate direct lending. Refer to Appendix for additional information regarding hypothetical asset class track records. Net IRRs and loss ratios shown will differ (and may differ materially) from IRRs and loss ratios calculated using different methodologies than those described above, and such different methodologies could have produced returns that are lower than those shown herein. Accordingly, it should not be assumed that any investor will experience similar returns. Refer to Appendix for additional performance and fee, hypothetical performance, investment strategy and risk information.

Market Outlook

Evolution of private credit as banks pull back due to regulatory pressures

Early 2000s	GFC 2007-2010	Re-Regulation 2010-2020	Today 2022-2024
• Direct Lending starts as niche mezzanine / junior loan market	• Banks de-risk from real estate and securitized credit: RMBS, CMBS	• Direct Lending evolves to provide senior loans to sponsor-backed mid-market companies	• Bank retrenchment in asset-based lending: mortgage, consumer, asset-backed credit

We believe private markets are attractive across sectors

Asset-based Lending

Specialty

- Opportunities in consumer and asset-backed markets as banks retrench due to regulatory pressure
- Higher barriers to entry create attractive income potential from high quality investments
- SOFR + 300 – 700 bps; High quality assets; Estimated levered yields: 11 – 15%

Residential

- Leverage PIMCO's scale deep mortgage expertise to invest in diversified mortgage pools
- Enhanced underwriting from PIMCO's proprietary mortgage analytics capabilities
- SOFR + 300 – 400 bps; LTV range of 50 – 70%; Estimated levered yields: 11 – 14%

Commercial

- Provide senior financing secured by commercial assets backed by institutional real estate sponsors
- Focus on sub-sectors like logistics and data centres with strong secular tailwinds
- SOFR + 300 – 550 bps; LTV range of 55 – 75%; Estimated levered yields: 9 – 12%

Corporate Credit

Corporate

- Senior secured debt financing to upper middle market companies operating in defensive, non-cyclical industries
- Capture elevated all-in yields to lend against companies with relatively low leverage levels
- SOFR + 450 – 550; LTV range of 40 – 50%; Estimated levered yields: 10 – 12%

Notes on Performance and Hypothetical Asset Class Track Records

Notes on Performance

As of 30 June 2025. Hypothetical performance for illustrative purposes only. Hypothetical performance is not based on actual results, has certain inherent limitations and should not be relied upon as the sole basis for making an investment decision. The hypothetical private multi-asset credit track record consists of equally weighted net quarterly returns of all evergreen PIMCO multi-asset credit strategies that target similar risk profiles to DPC. The information presented herein is as of a specific date, may have changed since such time and is subject to future change. Such information should not be considered as an indication of the actual or potential returns of any particular strategy or investment product, or their respective investments. The Fund was launched on July 1, 2025 and does not yet have a meaningful performance history. The track record performance starts from December 31, 2011. Historical sizing may not be representative of specific weighting and risk management for a dedicated multi-asset credit strategy like DPC. There is no guarantee that DPC will have access to the investment opportunities discussed herein or that such opportunities, if consummated, will produce any level of returns. Please reach out to your PIMCO representative for more information regarding the underlying strategies.

Notes on Hypothetical Asset Class Track Records

1) The Net IRR represents the Gross IRR for Specialty Finance Investments reduced by a model fee, calculated by reducing Gross IRR by a percentage equal to the current proportion of gross to net returns in the represented Funds. Loss ratio represents the total losses of fully realized investments from the track record of representative specialty finance investments divided by the total invested capital of the representative specialty finance investments (unrealized and realized investments).
2) Loss ratio represents the total loss balances of loans divided by the unpaid balance. Loss balances are measured across whole loans up to the point of securitization. PIMCO believes that unpaid balance would make the most representative denominator for residential loan investments because it measures losses based on the total outstanding principal, or remaining loan balance.
3) The Net IRR of the hypothetical track record shown represents the Gross IRR reduced by a model fee. Specifically, Net IRR is calculated by reducing Gross IRR by a percentage equal to the current proportion of gross to net returns in the representative real estate lending Funds. Loss ratio is calculated as the total losses on realized loans as a percentage of total PIMCO commitments deployed to performing commercial real estate debt.
4) The Net IRR of the hypothetical track record shown represents the Gross IRR reduced by a model fee. Specifically, Net IRR is calculated by reducing Gross IRR by a percentage equal to the current proportion of gross to net returns in the representative private corporate lending Funds. Loss ratio reflects average annual realized losses across investments divided by cumulative invested capital and reflects full calendar years only.

PERFORMANCE AND FEE

Past performance is not a guarantee or a reliable indicator of future results. The fees and expenses of the PIMCO Diversified Private Credit Fund ("DPC" or the "Fund") are discussed within its Documents (defined below).

Any investment decision must be based only on the Fund's prospectus and other definitive legal documents (the "Documents"), which shall govern in the event of any conflict with the information contained herein. You must rely only on the information in the Documents in making any decision to invest.

The information contained herein is being furnished to you solely for the purpose of giving you an indication of the strategy and structure of the Fund and is not to be used for any other purpose or made available to anyone not directly concerned with your evaluation of the possibility of requesting further information regarding an investment in such Fund. The Fund information set forth herein is not and does not purport to be complete, and is qualified by and subject to the relevant Fund's Documents. If you express an interest in investing in the Fund, any offer will be made by, and you will be provided with, the Documents.

This summary is for informational purposes only, and does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, interests in the Fund or to participate in any trading strategy. Any such offer would be made only after a prospective purchaser has had the opportunity to conduct its own independent evaluation of such Fund and has received all information required to make its own investment decision, including a copy of Documents, which will contain material information not included herein and to which prospective purchasers are referred. No person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representation other than those contained in this summary and, if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied upon as having been authorized. Each prospective investor should consult its own counsel, accountant, or tax or business adviser as to legal, accounting, regulatory, tax and related matters, as well as economic risks and merits, concerning the possibility of making an investment in any Fund.

CASE STUDIES

This presentation contains examples of the firm's internal investment research capability. The data contained within the reports may not be related to the product discussed herein, may be stale and should not be relied upon as investment advice or a recommendation of any particular security, strategy or investment product. In selecting case studies, PIMCO considers investment performance in addition to other factors, including, but not limited to, whether the example illustrates the particular investment strategy being featured and processes applied by PIMCO to making investment decisions. Information contained herein has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable, but not guaranteed.

CHART

Performance results for certain charts and graphs may be limited by date ranges specified on those charts and graphs; different time periods may produce different results.

ESG

PIMCO is committed to the integration of Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") factors into our broad research process and engaging with issuers on sustainability factors and our climate change investment analysis. At PIMCO, we define ESG integration as the consistent consideration of material ESG factors into our investment research process with the goal of enhancing our clients' risk-adjusted returns. Relevant factors may include, but are not limited to: climate change risks, resource efficiency, natural capital, human capital management, human rights, regulatory risks, and reputation risk at an issuer. Further information is available in PIMCO's Sustainable Investment Policy Statement.

ESG investing is qualitative and subjective by nature, and there is no guarantee that the factors utilized by PIMCO or any judgment exercised by PIMCO will reflect the opinions of any particular investor, and the factors utilized by PIMCO may differ from the factors that any particular investor considers relevant in evaluating an issuer's ESG practices. In evaluating an issuer, PIMCO is dependent upon information and data obtained through voluntary or third-party reporting that may be incomplete, inaccurate or unavailable, or present conflicting information and data with respect to an issuer, which in each case could cause PIMCO to incorrectly assess an issuer's business practices with respect to its ESG practices. Socially responsible norms differ by region, and an issuer's ESG practices or PIMCO's assessment of an issuer's ESG practices may change over time. There is no standardized industry definition or certification for certain ESG categories, for example "green bonds"; as such, the inclusion of securities in these statistics involves PIMCO's subjectivity and discretion. There is no assurance that the ESG investing strategy or techniques employed will be successful. Past performance is not a guarantee or reliable indicator of future results.

FORECAST

Forecasts, estimates and certain information contained herein are based upon proprietary research and should not be interpreted as investment advice, as an offer or solicitation, nor as the purchase or sale of any financial instrument. Forecasts and estimates have certain inherent limitations, and unlike an actual performance record, do not reflect actual trading, liquidity constraints, fees, and/or other costs. In addition, references to future results should not be construed as an estimate or promise of results that a client portfolio may achieve.

HYPOTHETICAL PERFORMANCE
HYPOTHETICAL PERFORMANCE RESULTS HAVE MANY INHERENT LIMITATIONS, SOME OF WHICH ARE DESCRIBED BELOW. NO REPRESENTATION IS BEING MADE THAT ANY ACCOUNT WILL OR IS LIKELY TO ACHIEVE PROFITS OR LOSSES SIMILAR TO THOSE SHOWN. IN FACT, THERE ARE FREQUENTLY SHARP DIFFERENCES BETWEEN HYPOTHETICAL PERFORMANCE RESULTS AND THE ACTUAL RESULTS SUBSEQUENTLY ACHIEVED BY ANY PARTICULAR TRADING PROGRAM.

ONE OF THE LIMITATIONS OF HYPOTHETICAL PERFORMANCE RESULTS IS THAT THEY ARE GENERALLY PREPARED WITH THE BENEFIT OF HINDSIGHT. IN ADDITION, HYPOTHETICAL TRADING DOES NOT INVOLVE FINANCIAL RISK, AND NO HYPOTHETICAL TRADING RECORD CAN COMPLETELY ACCOUNT FOR THE IMPACT OF FINANCIAL RISK IN ACTUAL TRADING. FOR EXAMPLE, THE ABILITY TO WITHSTAND LOSSES OR TO ADHERE TO A PARTICULAR TRADING PROGRAM IN SPITE OF TRADING LOSSES ARE MATERIAL POINTS WHICH CAN ALSO ADVERSELY AFFECT ACTUAL TRADING RESULTS. THERE ARE NUMEROUS OTHER FACTORS RELATED TO THE MARKETS IN GENERAL OR TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF ANY SPECIFIC TRADING PROGRAM WHICH CANNOT BE FULLY ACCOUNTED FOR IN THE PREPARATION OF HYPOTHETICAL PERFORMANCE RESULTS AND ALL OF WHICH CAN ADVERSELY AFFECT ACTUAL TRADING RESULTS. [1]

[1] THIS MAY INCLUDE THE IMPACT OF TRANSACTION COSTS, LACK OF LIQUIDITY, PRICE VOLATILITY IN THE MARKET AS A WHOLE OR FOR A PARTICULAR INVESTMENT, HOW PARTICULAR INVESTMENTS WITHIN A TRADING PROGRAM INTERACT WITH ONE ANOTHER, OR HOW A TRADING STRATEGY MAY BE ADJUSTED OVER TIME IN RESPONSE TO PERFORMANCE AND RISK METRICS ON A PER-INVESTMENT OR MACRO LEVEL.

ALTHOUGH HYPOTHETICAL PERFORMANCE MAY BE USEFUL TO CONSIDER WHEN MAKING AN INVESTMENT DECISION, IT SHOULD NOT SERVE AS THE SOLE BASIS FOR AN INVESTMENT DECISION. YOU MAY LOSE MONEY ON YOUR INVESTMENT.

INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS BASED ON DATA FROM STATISTICAL SERVICES, COMPANY REPORTS, COMMUNICATIONS OR OTHER SOURCES THAT PIMCO BELIEVES TO BE RELIABLE; HOWEVER, PIMCO MAY NOT HAVE VERIFIED ALL OF THIS INFORMATION AND MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS AS TO ITS ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS.

INDEX

INVESTMENT STRATEGY
There is no guarantee that these investment strategies will work under all market conditions or are appropriate for all investors and each investor should evaluate their ability to invest for a long-term especially during periods of downturn in the market. No representation is being made that any account, product, or strategy will or is likely to achieve profits, losses, or results similar to those shown.

ISSUER
References to specific securities and their issuers are not intended and should not be interpreted as recommendations to purchase, sell or hold such securities. PIMCO products and strategies may or may not include the securities referenced and, if such securities are included, no representation is being made that such securities will continue to be included.

OUTLOOK
Statements concerning financial market trends or portfolio strategies are based on current market conditions, which will fluctuate. There is no guarantee that these investment strategies will work under all market conditions or are appropriate for all investors and each investor should evaluate their ability to invest for the long term, especially during periods of downturn in the market. Outlook and strategies are subject to change without notice.

PORTFOLIO STRUCTURE
The portfolio structure is a representation of a sample portfolio and no guarantee is being made that the structure of the portfolio will remain the same or that similar returns will be achieved.

Appendix

RISK

The Fund is not subject to the same regulatory requirements as mutual funds. The Fund is expected to be leveraged and to engage in speculative investment practices that will increase the risk of investment loss. The Fund' performance could be volatile; an investor could lose all or a substantial amount of its investment. The Fund' manager will have broad trading authority over such Fund. The use of a single adviser applying generally similar trading programs could mean lack of diversification and, consequently, higher risk. There is no secondary market for the Fund interest and none is expected to develop. There will be restrictions on transferring interests in the Fund and limited liquidity provisions. The Fund' fees and expenses may offset its trading profits. The Fund will not be required to provide periodic pricing or valuation information to investors. The Fund will involve complex tax structures and there may be delays in distributing important tax information. A substantial portion of the trades executed for certain Fund are in non-U.S. securities and take place on non-U.S. exchanges.

Investments in commercial real estate are subject to risks that include prepayment, delinquency, foreclosure, risks of loss, servicing risks and adverse regulatory developments. Private credit involves an investment in non-publically traded securities which are subject to illiquidity risk. Portfolios that invest in private credit may be leveraged and may engage in speculative investment practices that increase the risk of investment loss. Investments in Private Credit may also be subject to real estate-related risks, which include new regulatory or legislative developments, the attractiveness and location of properties, the financial condition of tenants, potential liability under environmental and other laws, as well as natural disasters and other factors beyond a manager's control. Equity investments may decline in value due to both real and perceived general market, economic and industry conditions, while debt investments are subject to credit, interest rate and other risks. Investing in foreign-denominated and/or -domiciled securities may involve heightened risk due to currency fluctuations, and economic and political risks, which may be enhanced in emerging markets. Structured products such as collateralized debt obligations are also highly complex instruments, typically involving a high degree of risk; use of these instruments may involve derivative instruments that could lose more than the principal amount invested. Investing in banks and related entities is a highly complex field subject to extensive regulation, and investments in such entities or other operating companies may give rise to control person liability and other risks. The current regulatory climate is uncertain and rapidly evolving, and future developments could adversely affect the Fund and/or its investments. In addition, there can be no assurance that PIMCO's strategies with respect to any investment will be capable of implementation or, if implemented, will be successful.

The foregoing is only a description of certain key risks and is not a complete enumeration of all risks to which the Fund will be subject. The Fund will be subject to numerous other risks not described herein. Prospective investors must carefully review the Documents (including, without limitation, the risk factors contained in the Fund's private placement memorandum) prior to making any investment decision.

A purchase of interests in any Fund involves a high degree of risk that each prospective investor must carefully consider prior to making such an investment. Investors should thoroughly review the investment considerations and risk factors section of the Fund's private placement memorandum for a more complete description of these risks. Prospective investors are advised that investment in the Fund is appropriate only for persons of adequate financial means who have no need for liquidity with respect to their investment and who can bear the economic risk, including the possible complete loss, of their investment.

STRATEGY AVAILABILITY

Strategy availability may be limited to certain investment vehicles; not all investment vehicles may be available to all investors. Please contact your PIMCO representative for more information.

TAX

PIMCO does not provide legal or tax advice. Please consult your tax and/or legal counsel for specific tax or legal questions and concerns. The discussion herein is general in nature and is provided for informational purposes only. There is no guarantee as to its accuracy or completeness. Any tax statements contained herein are not intended or written to be used, and cannot be relied upon or used for the purpose of avoiding penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service or state and local tax authorities. Individuals should consult their own legal and tax counsel as to matters discussed herein and before entering into any estate planning, trust, investment, retirement, or insurance arrangement.

TARGET RETURN

The Target Return stated herein is not a guarantee, projection or prediction of future results of the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve the Target Return or any particular level of return; an investor may lose all of its money by investing in the Fund. Actual results may vary significantly from the Target Return. Actual gross returns in any given year may be lower than the Target Return. Even if the Target Return is met, actual returns to investors will be lower due to expenses, taxes, structuring considerations and other factors. In addition, the Target Return may be adjusted at PIMCO's discretion without notice to investors in light of available investment opportunities and/or changing market conditions. PIMCO believes that the Target Return for the Fund is reasonable based on a combination of factors, including the Fund's investment team's general experience, the availability of leverage and financing at expected times, amounts, costs and other terms and assessment of prevailing market conditions and investment opportunities. There are, however, numerous assumptions that factor into the Target Return that may not be consistent with future market conditions and that may significantly affect actual investment results. Such assumptions include (i) the ability to source and acquire attractively priced assets; (ii) the expected response of specific investments to market conditions; (iii) the availability of leverage for certain investments at expected terms; and (iv) PIMCO's outlook for certain global and local economies and markets as it relates to potential changes to the regulatory environment, interest rates, growth expectations, residential and commercial real estate or consumer fundamentals and the health of the economy. No representation or warranty is made as to the reasonableness of the assumptions made or that all assumptions used in calculating the Target Return have been stated or fully considered. Prospective investors reviewing the Target Return must make their own determination as to the reasonableness of the assumptions and the reliability of the Target Return. Actual results and events may differ significantly from the assumptions and estimates on which the Target Return is based.

YIELD TO MATURITY
Yield to Maturity (YTM) is the estimated total return of a bond if held to maturity. YTM accounts for the present value of a bond's future coupon payments. Alternative investments often do not have fixed coupon payments or a maturity date. Any YTM figures provided for alternative investments are estimates based on assumptions that may or may not hold true. The measure does not reflect the deduction of fees and expenses and is not necessarily indicative of the Fund's actual performance. A portfolio's actual yield or distribution rate may be significantly lower than its estimated YTM in practice. Also, estimated YTM is not intended to indicate that a portfolio will actually hold any or all of its portfolio securities to maturity in practice, and various securities may be sold or otherwise disposed of prior to maturity. Estimated YTM is not a projection or prediction of the actual yield or return that a portfolio may achieve or any other future performance results. There can be no assurance that a portfolio will achieve any particular level of yield or return and actual results may vary significantly from estimated YTM.

Distribution in the European Economic Area:
In relation to each member state of the EEA (each a "Member State"), this material may only be distributed and Shares/Interests may only be offered or placed in a Member State to the extent that: (1) the Fund is permitted to be marketed to professional investors in the relevant Member State in accordance with AIFMD (as implemented into the local law/regulation of the relevant Member State); or (2) this material may otherwise be lawfully distributed and the Shares/Interests may otherwise be lawfully offered or placed in that Member State (including at the initiative of the investor). No subscriptions are being sought or solicited from Member States where the fund has not been registered for sale to professional investors.

Switzerland: This is an advertising document. The state of the origin of the fund is Luxembourg. In Switzerland, this document may only be provided to qualified investors within the meaning of art. 10 para. 3 and 3ter CISA. In Switzerland, the representative is Acolin Fund Services AG, Leutschenbachstrasse 50, 8050 Zurich, Switzerland, whilst the paying agent is Banque Cantonale de Genève, 17 quai de l'Ile,1204 Geneva, Switzerland. The basic documents of the fund as well as the annual and, if applicable, semi-annual report may be obtained free of charge from the representative. Past performance is no indication of current or future performance. The performance data do not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of units.

United Kingdom: The material is being issued in the United Kingdom by PIMCO Europe Ltd (which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA")) and is directed only at persons who are professional clients or eligible counterparties for the purposes of the FCA's Conduct of Business Sourcebook. The opportunity to invest in the Fund is only available to such persons in the United Kingdom and this presentation must not be relied or acted upon by any other persons in the United Kingdom.

Ireland: The distribution of this document in Ireland and the offering or purchase of fund interests is restricted to the individual to whom it is addressed. Accordingly, it may not be reproduced in whole or in part, nor may its contents be distributed in writing or orally to any third party and it may be read solely by the person to whom it is addressed and his/her professional advisers. Interests in the Fund will not be offered or sold by any person: (a) otherwise than in conformity with the provisions of the European Union (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017, as amended; or (b) in any way which would require the publication of a prospectus under the Companies Act 2014 or any regulations made thereunder; or (c) in Ireland except in all circumstances that will result in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations in Ireland.

Middle East

Bahrain: The document has not been approved by the Central Bank of Bahrain which takes no responsibility for its contents. No offer to the public to purchase Fund interests will be made in the Kingdom of Bahrain and this document is intended to be read by the addressee only and must not be passed to, issued to, or shown to the public generally.

Kuwait: This presentation is not for general circulation to the public in Kuwait. The interests of the Fund have not been licensed for offering in Kuwait by the Kuwait Capital Markets Authority or any other relevant Kuwaiti government agency. The offering of the Fund in Kuwait on the basis of a private placement or public offering is, therefore, restricted in accordance with Law No. 7 of 2010 and the bylaws thereto (as amended). No private or public offering of the Fund is being made in Kuwait, and no agreement relating to the sale of BRAVO IV will be concluded in Kuwait. No marketing or solicitation or inducement activities are being used to offer or market the Fund in Kuwait.

Qatar: The Fund interests are only being offered to a limited number of investors who are willing and able to conduct an independent investigation of the risks involved in an investment in such interests. This communication does not constitute an offer to the public and is for the use only of the named addressee and should not be given or shown to any other person (other than employees, agents or consultants in connection with the addressee's consideration thereof). The fund has not been and will not be registered with the Qatar Central Bank or under any laws of the State of Qatar. No transaction will be concluded in your jurisdiction and any inquiries regarding the interests should be made to PIMCO.

Saudi Arabia: The interests may only be offered and sold in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in accordance with Article 94 of the Investment Funds Regulations issued on December 24, 2006 (the "Regulations"). Article 94(a) of the Regulations states that, if investment fund units are offered to sophisticated investors, as specified in Article 74(b) of the Regulations, or the minimum amount payable per offeree is not less than Saudi Riyals 1 million or an equivalent amount in another currency, such offer of investment fund units shall be deemed a private placement for purposes of the Regulations. Investors are informed that Article 101 of the Regulations places restrictions on secondary market activity with respect to such investment fund units.

United Arab Emirates: FOR UNITED ARAB EMIRATES (EXCLUDING DUBAI INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL CENTRE AND ABU DHABI GLOBAL MARKET) RESIDENTS ONLY. This document, and the information contained herein, does not constitute, and is not intended to constitute, a public offer of securities in the United Arab Emirates and accordingly should not be construed as such. The Interests are only being offered to a limited number of exempt investors in the UAE who fall under one of the following categories of non-natural Qualified Investors: (1) an investor which is able to manage its investments on its own, namely: (a) the federal government, local governments, government entities and authorities or companies wholly-owned by any such entities; (b) international entities and organisations; or (c) a person licensed to carry out a commercial activity in the UAE, provided that investment is one of the objects of such person; or (2) an investor who is represented by an investment manager licensed by the SCA, (each a "non-natural Qualified Investor").
The Interests have not been approved by or licensed or registered with the UAE Central Bank, the Securities and Commodities Authority, the Dubai Financial Services Authority, the Financial Services Regulatory Authority or any other relevant licensing authorities or governmental agencies in the UAE (the "Authorities"). The Authorities assume no liability for any investment that the named addressee makes as a non-natural Qualified Investor. The document is for the use of the named addressee only and should not be given or shown to any other person (other than employees, agents or consultants in connection with the addressee's consideration thereof).

Israel: This material has not been approved by the Israel Securities Authority and will only be distributed to Israeli residents in a manner that will not constitute "an offer to the public" under sections 15 and 15a of the Israel Securities Law, 5728-1968 ("the Securities Law") or section 25 of the Joint Investment Trusts Law, 5754-1994 ("the Joint Investment Trusts Law "), as applicable. The Fund is being offered to a limited number of investors (35 investors or fewer during any given 12 month period) and/or those categories of investors listed in the First Addendum ("the Addendum") to the Securities Law, ("Sophisticated Investors") namely joint investment funds or mutual trust funds, provident funds, insurance companies, banking corporations (purchasing the Fund for themselves or for clients who are Sophisticated Investors), portfolio managers (purchasing the Fund for themselves or for clients who are Sophisticated Investors), investment advisors or investment marketers (purchasing the Fund for themselves), members of the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange (purchasing the Fund for themselves or for clients who are Sophisticated Investors), underwriters (purchasing the Fund for themselves), venture capital funds engaging mainly in the capital market, an entity which is wholly-owned by Sophisticated Investors, corporations, (other than formed for the specific purpose of an acquisition pursuant to an offer), with a shareholders equity in excess of NIS 50 million, and individuals investing for their own account, in respect of which at least one of the following applies: the total value of their cash, deposits, financial assets (as defined in the Investment Advice Law) and securities traded on a stock exchange licensed under the Securities Law (together, “Liquid Assets”) exceeds NIS 8 million; their level of income over each of the preceding two years exceeds NIS 1.2 million, or the level of income of their "family unit" exceeds NIS 1.8 million; or the aggregate value of all their Liquid Assets exceeds NIS 5 million and their level of income over each of the preceding two years exceeds NIS 600,000, or the level of income of their "family unit" exceeds NIS 900,000; each as defined in the said Addendum, as amended from time to time, and who in each case have provided written confirmation that they qualify as Sophisticated Investors, and that they are aware of the consequences of such designation and agree thereto; in all cases under circumstances that will fall within the private placement or other exemptions of the Joint Investment Trusts Law, the Securities Law and any applicable guidelines, pronouncements or rulings issued from time to time by the Israel Securities Authority.
This material may not be reproduced or used for any other purpose, nor be furnished to any other person other than those to whom copies have been sent. Any offeree who purchases the Fund is purchasing such Fund for its own benefit and account and not with the aim or intention of distributing or offering such Fund to other parties (other than, in the case of an offeree which is a Sophisticated Investor by virtue of it being a banking corporation, portfolio manager or member of the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange, as defined in the Addendum, where such offeree is purchasing the Fund for another party which is a Sophisticated Investor). Nothing in this material should be considered investment advice or investment marketing as defined in the Regulation of Investment Counselling, Investment Marketing and Portfolio Management Law, 5755-1995 (“the Investment Advice Law”).

Investors are encouraged to seek competent investment counselling from a locally licensed investment counsel prior to making the investment. The Fund does not hold a license under the Investment Advice Law, nor does it carry the insurance as required of a licensee thereunder. As a prerequisite to the receipt of a copy of this material a recipient may be required by the Issuer to provide confirmation that it is a Sophisticated Investor purchasing the Fund for its own account or, where applicable, for other Sophisticated Investors.
This material does not constitute an offer to sell or solicitation of an offer to buy any securities other than the Units offered hereby, nor does it constitute an offer to sell to or solicitation of an offer to buy from any person or persons in any state or other jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation would be unlawful, or in which the person making such offer or solicitation is not qualified to do so, or to a person or persons to whom it is unlawful to make such offer or solicitation.

The information provided herein is intended to be used solely by the recipient in considering the products or services described herein and may not be used for any other reason, personal or otherwise.
