The undersigned Subscriber hereby agrees to become a limited partner (a "Limited Partner") in the Partnership, which is a limited partnership formed under the laws of the State of Israel, and to make Contribution(s) to the capital of the Partnership pursuant to a Subscription in the aggregate amount accepted by the General Partner). In connection therewith:

1. The Subscriber acknowledges having received and read the LPA and represents and warrants to the General Partner that it has consulted its own attorney, accountant, tax adviser or any other investment adviser, as it deems suitable, with respect to the investment contemplated hereby and its suitability for the Subscriber. Any specific acknowledgment set forth herein with respect to any statement contained in the LPA shall not be deemed to limit the generality of this representation and warranty.

2. Upon acceptance of the Subscriber's offer to subscribe for a limited partnership interest (the "Interest") in the Partnership, the Subscriber agrees (a) to become a Limited Partner, and (b) to be bound by all the provisions of the LPA, as from time to time in effect, including without limitation to make contribution to the Partnership in an aggregate amount equal to its Subscription amount, as provided in the LPA. Upon its execution of this Subscription Agreement, the General Partner hereby accepts the Subscriber's Subscription, and hereby agrees to admit the Subscriber as a Limited Partner. The General Partner, acting on behalf of itself and as attorney-in-fact on behalf of each of the other Partners in the Partnership, and the Subscriber agrees that, with effect from the General Partner's acceptance of the Subscriber's Subscription pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, the Subscriber will be admitted to the Partnership as a Limited Partner and will be bound by and receive the benefit of the terms of the LPA as a Limited Partner, and such terms are hereby incorporated by reference as if set out herein in full.

3. The Subscriber represents that its investment in the Partnership is on an "AS IS" basis and it has not relied on any warranty, representation or indemnity undertaking (whether oral or written) of the Partnership, the General Partner, the Managing Partner, the Management Company or any of their respective Affiliates, directors, officers, shareholders, employees or their representatives or anyone on their behalf, that are not detailed in the LPA, if any, and accordingly the Subscriber does not and shall not have any claims against the Partnership, the General Partner, the Managing Partner, the Management Company or any of their respective Affiliates, directors, officers, shareholders, employees or their representatives or anyone on their behalf, in respect of any warranty, representation or indemnity undertaking that is not expressly detailed in the LPA.

4. The Subscriber had the opportunity to ask and has received satisfactory answers to all questions raised with the General Partner or its authorized representatives concerning the terms and conditions relating to a subscription for and holding of an Interest in the Partnership and accordingly, the Subscriber has or has had the opportunity to obtain sufficient information from the General Partner or its authorized representatives to sufficiently evaluate the merits and risks of subscribing for and holding of the Interests.

5. Unless identified otherwise in Section 4 of Part I to the Investor Questionnaire, the Subscriber is acquiring the Interest for its own account and will hold the Interest for its own benefit and not as a trustee, nominee, agent, custodian, representative, intermediary or in a similar capacity for another Person (any such other Person being an "Underlying Beneficial Owner"). Where the Subscriber holds the Interest for one or more Underlying Beneficial Owners, the Subscriber represents that it: (i) is duly authorized and qualified to give the declarations, representations, warranties, acknowledgements, authorizations and confirmations herein on behalf of each of the Underlying Beneficial Owners; and (ii) gives and makes each of the declarations, representations, warranties, undertakings, acknowledgements, authorizations and confirmations herein for itself (where appropriate) and separately for each of the Underlying Beneficial Owners and accordingly, where appropriate, references to "the Subscriber" shall also be deemed to be references to each of the Underlying Beneficial Owners named in Section 4 of Part I to the Investor Questionnaire. If the Subscriber holds an Interest for an Underlying Beneficial Owner, the Subscriber agrees to provide such information as the General Partner may reasonably request regarding the Subscriber and each Underlying Beneficial Owner, including in order to determine the eligibility of the Subscriber to apply for Interests. The Underlying Beneficial Owner will not Transfer or otherwise dispose of any part of its indirect participation in the Interest (including any rights attached thereto) except in compliance and subject to the relevant provisions of the LPA, as though such Underlying Beneficial Owner were transferring the Interest held by itself directly in the Partnership.

6. The Subscriber is acquiring the Interest for investment purposes only and not with a view to, or for, the resale, distribution, subdivision or fractionalization thereof, or for the account, in whole or in part, of others.

7. The Subscriber further represents and warrants that it has the professional, financial, economic and business knowledge, ability and experience required in order to independently evaluate the merits and risks involved in investing in the Partnership on the terms and conditions of the LPA, that it is able to perform all its obligations pursuant hereto, and in particular the payment of the Subscriber's entire Subscription, at such times determined by the General Partner.

8. 9. The Subscriber is aware that its investments in the Partnership and the Partnership's operations and transactions might be taxed in multiple jurisdictions, with the exposure involved therein and that tax might be charged by way of withholding taxes and/or other obligatory payments required by applicable law to be withheld from each distribution to the Partners or from distributions made to the Partnership by the Portfolio Companies in which the Partnership invests.

10. The Subscriber acknowledges that it may be called upon to pay tax on its share of the Partnership's income from its own resources, without it being entitled to finance such tax from the Partnership's resources. Further, the Subscriber represents that it fully complies with its tax liabilities under any applicable law, including its tax reporting obligations with respect to its investment in the Partnership, and that it will pay all applicable taxes, if any, with respect to its investment in the Partnership, or otherwise.

12. The Subscriber authorizes the General Partner and its member(s) and Affiliates or authorized agents of any of them to comply with any regulatory and/or tax requirements which apply to the Partnership and/or its Partners and/or the requirements of any financial institution in which the Partnership has an account or intends to open an account. Without derogating from the foregoing, the Subscriber is aware that the General Partner or any of its advisors, may give the tax authorities, any regulator or the applicable financial institutions, details regarding Limited Partners, including the identity of the Limited Partners, or some of them, their Interest and their share of the Partnership's profits.

13. The Subscriber represents that it has not received any tax advice and/or representations on the subject of tax from the Partnership, the General Partner, the Managing Partner, the Management Company and/or their respective Affiliates, and that it has examined the provisions of the law relating to the taxation of exempted limited partnerships, limited partners and investments of the type the Partnership plans to make and that the provisions of the LPA and the documents ancillary hereto do not constitute an alternative for specific tax advice relating to its Interest and taking into account the specific facts of each Limited Partner and that the Subscriber is entering into the LPA and this Subscription Agreement having been given the chance to obtain tax advice as aforesaid, and that it is aware of all the tax implications of its investment in the Partnership.

14. The Subscriber represents and warrants that all the answers, statements and information set forth in the attached Investor Questionnaire and the forms and documents attached thereto are true and accurate on the date hereof and will remain true and accurate as of the date that the Partnership admits the Subscriber, if ever, to the Partnership as a Limited Partner, and of each time (if any) the Subscriber makes a Contribution to the Partnership, and continuously at all times thereafter. The Subscriber acknowledges that such information has been relied on by the General Partner and its agents and may be relied on by other third parties with which the Partnership has business relationship (such as financial institutions) and agrees to notify the General Partner promptly in the event that any such answers, statements or information becomes untrue or inaccurate in any material respect.

15. The Subscriber agrees to provide the General Partner, promptly upon its request, with all information and/or documents (including with respect to its beneficial owners and/or its Underlying Beneficial Owners) requested by the General Partner in connection with the execution of this Subscription Agreement and the participation of the Subscriber in the Partnership, including in relation to identity, citizenship, residency, tax status or reference numbers, business, ownership or control (both direct and indirect) of the Subscriber or any Underlying Beneficial Owners, a properly completed United States Internal Revenue Service Tax Form W-8 / W-9, as applicable, and a properly completed CRS self-certification form and any such additional information and/or documents as may requested by it in order to comply with any laws applicable to the General Partner and/or the Partnership and/or the Managing Partner and/or the Management Company and/or any Portfolio Company.

16. The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that the Partnership, the General Partner, the Managing Partner, the Management Company, or any of their respective advisors, may, to the extent required or commercially desirable, disclose information provided in or pursuant to this Subscription Agreement, to any governmental authority, or to any Person or entity from which the Partnership receives payments, any service provider of the Partnership, current or potential investors in the Partnership, Portfolio Companies or any banks or financial institutions with which the Partnership engages, on an "as needed" basis and if the General Partner, in its sole discretion, determines that releasing such information is in the best interest of the Partnership in light of any regulations or administrative pronouncements promulgated under applicable laws or in light of its permitted operations under the LPA.

17. The Subscriber understands that this subscription is not binding on the Partnership until accepted by the General Partner, and may be rejected in whole or in part by the General Partner, in its absolute discretion. Unless or until rejected by the General Partner, this subscription shall be irrevocable by the Subscriber.

18. The Subscriber understands and acknowledges that the legal counsels of the Partnership, the General Partner, the Managing Partner, the Management Company and their respective Affiliates do not act as the legal counsels of any Limited Partner by virtue of its investment in the Partnership. The Subscriber also understands that, in connection with the offering of Interests and subsequent advice to the General Partner (and certain of its Affiliates), the legal counsels of the General Partner will not be representing the Subscriber. The Subscriber acknowledges that the General Partner's and the Partnership's counsels have not independently verified any factual assertions made by the Partnership and the General Partner and are not responsible for the compliance of the Partnership with any applicable law.

19. The Subscriber is fully aware that the offering and sale of Interests, including the Interest being acquired by the Subscriber, have not been and will not be registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") under any state or foreign securities laws or regulations or under any applicable securities laws of any states or other jurisdictions and have been made in reliance upon exemptions for transactions not involving a public offering. The offering of Interests in the Partnership has not been reviewed or approved by any securities regulatory authority. In addition, no governmental entity or agency has made any finding or determination as to the accuracy or adequacy of the LPA or as to the fairness of the terms of the offering under the LPA.

20. The Subscriber has no need for liquidity with respect to its Interests in the Partnership and is investing in the Interest with the view of holding it and not for the purpose of transferring it or any right with respect thereto to another. The Subscriber understands that sales or transfers of the Interests, and any legal, equitable or economic interest therein (such as any economic participation or derivatives based on the return of the interest in the Partnership) are restricted by the provisions of the LPA and this Subscription Agreement and that the Subscriber will be required to retain ownership of the Interests and bear the economic risk associated with the Interest in the Partnership for an indefinite period of time and that upon the winding-up of the Partnership the Subscriber may receive repayments or distributions in kind of assets which may be illiquid.

21. Furthermore, the Subscriber understands and acknowledges that the Interests, and any legal, equitable or economic interest therein (such as any economic participation or derivatives based on the return of the interest in the Partnership), may not be transferred or resold, and the Subscriber may not offer to sell, or solicit an offer to buy, the Interest, or any legal, equitable or economic interest therein, unless (i) the Interest or interests therein are transferred or resold pursuant to (A) registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable state or foreign securities laws, or (B) an available exemption from such registration requirement(s), and (ii) the Subscriber has received the prior written consent of the General Partner pursuant to Section 11 of the LPA. In addition, the Subscriber agrees not to list the Interest or interests therein for sale on any secondary market or exchange.

22. With respect to the profit sharing and compensation arrangements between the Partners set forth in the LPA, the Subscriber understands and acknowledges that (i) the profit sharing arrangements may create an incentive for the General Partner to make investment decisions that are riskier or more speculative than would be the case in the absence of such arrangements, and (ii) such profit sharing and compensation arrangements represent arms'-length arrangements between the Limited Partners and the Partnership, on the one hand, and the General Partner on the other hand and that other arrangements more favorable to the Subscriber may be available in the market. The Subscriber understands the proposed methods of profit sharing and compensation of the General Partner and their risks.

23. The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that the Partnership is required to comply with the provisions of AEOI and agrees to provide, in a timely manner, such information regarding the Subscriber and its beneficial owners and Underlying Beneficial Owners and such forms or documentation as may be requested from time to time by the Partnership (whether by its General Partner or other agents) to enable the Partnership or any Portfolio Company in which the Partnership invests to comply with the requirements and obligations imposed on them pursuant to AEOI, including, but not limited to, forms and documentation which the Partnership or any Portfolio Company may require to determine whether or not the relevant investment is a "Reportable Account" (under any AEOI regime) and to comply with the relevant due diligence procedures in making such determination;

24. The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that if the Subscriber provides information and documentation that is in any way misleading, or it fails to provide the Partnership or its agents with the requested information and documentation necessary in either case to satisfy the General Partner's, the Partnership's, the Managing Partner's, the Management Company's or any Portfolio Company's obligations under AEOI, such Persons may be subject to regulatory constrains or penalties, including fines, and the General Partner reserves the right (whether or not such action or inaction leads to compliance failures by the General Partner, the Partnership, the Managing Partner, the Management Company or any Portfolio Company, or a risk of the General Partner, the Partnership, the Managing Partner, the Management Company or any Portfolio Company being subject to withholding tax or other costs, debts, expenses, obligations or liabilities (whether external, or internal, to the General Partner, the Partnership, the Managing Partner, the Management Company or any Portfolio Company) (together, "Costs") under AEOI):

    (i) to take any action and/or pursue all remedies at its disposal including, without limitation, compulsory redemption or withdrawal of the Subscriber; and

    (ii) to hold back from any payments or any other distributions, or to deduct from the Subscriber's applicable Capital Account, any costs caused (directly or indirectly) by the Subscriber's action or inaction. In this respect the Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that it will be held fully responsible for any costs caused (directly or indirectly) by the Subscriber's action or inaction.

25. The Subscriber hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the General Partner (with full right of substitution) to be its attorney-in-fact, in such Subscriber's name, place, and stead, to make, execute, acknowledge, file and publish, as the General Partner may deem necessary or advisable:

    (i) any documents required in connection with the admission of any additional or successor Partner in accordance with the terms of the LPA;

    (ii) any other documents which the General Partner may deem necessary or advisable in connection with the continued existence and operation of the Partnership; and

    (iii) any documents which the General Partner may deem required in connection with the Partnership's investment in Portfolio Companies, made in accordance with the terms of the LPA.

This power of attorney is given to secure the obligations of the Subscriber under this Subscription Agreement and/or a proprietary interest of the General Partner; it is therefore irrevocable and shall survive the death or disability of the Subscriber and any assignment of the whole or any part of the Interest held by the Subscriber and shall be binding upon the assignee thereof.

26. The Subscriber represents and warrants that the Interest is to be purchased with funds that are from legitimate sources in connection with its regular business activities, that such funds do not consist of directly or indirectly the proceeds of any illegal activity (including, but not limited to, drug trafficking or other criminal activities), that such fund were duly reported to any relevant tax authorities (to the extent required by applicable law), and the Subscriber's Subscription is not designed to conceal such proceeds so as to avoid prosecution of an offence or otherwise. No Subscription by the Subscriber to the Partnership and no distribution to the Subscriber (assuming such distribution is made in accordance with instructions provided to the General Partner by the Subscriber) shall cause the Partnership, the General Partner, the Managing Partner, the Management Company or any of their respective Affiliates to be in violation of any applicable Anti-Money Laundering Laws.

27. The Subscriber further understands and accepts that the General Partner will not confirm acceptance of the Subscriber's Subscription, or details of the Interest allotted to the Subscriber before the General Partner has received the documentation verifying the Subscriber's identity to its satisfaction; the Subscriber further understands and agrees that in the event that the General Partner accepts the subscription prior to confirmation of the Subscriber's identity to the satisfaction of the General Partner and such confirmation is not forthcoming, the issue of any Interest to the Subscriber may be cancelled and the General Partner may compulsory redeem or withdraw the Subscriber from the Partnership. In such event, any funds received from the Subscriber will be returned to the bank account from which the original subscription moneys were remitted, at the Subscriber's expense and without any interest. The Subscriber also agrees, for itself and for and on behalf of its beneficial owners and controllers where applicable, (i) that the General Partner shall not be responsible for any loss that the Subscriber may suffer as a result of any such cancellation of allotment and/or compulsory redemption or withdrawal; and (ii) to indemnify and hold harmless the General Partner in respect of any loss they may incur as a result of the Subscriber's failure to confirm its identity.

28. The Subscriber hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Partnership, the General Partner, the Managing Partner, the Management Company, and their respective agents, representatives, officers, directors, partners, members, employees, shareholders or Affiliates, from time to time from and against any and all losses, expenses and liabilities due to or arising out of or in connection with (i) a breach or inaccuracy of any agreements, covenants, undertakings, confirmations, declarations, warranties and/or representations contained in this Subscription Booklet or, where applicable, any of the same not being true, (ii) a failure to process the Subscriber's application for a Subscription where information has been requested and has not been provided by the Subscriber or has not been provided by the Subscriber in sufficient time to allow the relevant party to process the same, or (iii) their compliance with any Anti-Money Laundering Laws or regulations applicable to the Partnership or to the Managing Partner or to any of the Partners. Each Person so indemnified who is not a party to this Subscription Agreement shall be entitled to enforce the provisions of this Section 30 to the extent permitted under applicable law.

29. The Subscriber understands that enhanced due diligence may need to be undertaken, and the General Partner reserves the right to decline the subscription, where the Subscriber or its beneficial owner or controller is a "politically exposed person" (as defined under the applicable Anti-Money Laundering Laws), or an immediate family member or close associate of a politically exposed person, or is acting on behalf of a politically exposed person.

30. The Subscriber represents and warrants that all personal data provided to the Partnership or its delegates by or on behalf of the Subscriber has been and will be provided in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, including, without limitation, those relating to privacy or the use of personal data. The Subscriber shall ensure that any personal data that the Subscriber provides to the Partnership or its delegates is accurate and up to date, and the Subscriber shall promptly notify the General Partner if the Subscriber becomes aware that any such data is no longer accurate or up to date.

31. The Subscriber acknowledges receipt of the Partnership's privacy notice attached as Part VII hereto (the "Fund Privacy Notice"). The Subscriber shall promptly provide the Fund Privacy Notice to (i) each individual whose personal data the Subscriber has provided or will provide to the Partnership or any of its delegates in connection with the Subscriber's investment in the Partnership (such as directors, trustees, employees, representatives, shareholders, investors, clients, beneficial owners or agents) and (ii) any other individual connected to the Subscriber as may be requested by the Partnership or any of its delegates. The Subscriber shall also promptly provide to any such individual, on request by the Partnership or any of its delegates, any updated versions of the Fund Privacy Notice and the privacy notice (or other data protection disclosures) of any third party to which the Fund or any of its delegates has directly or indirectly provided that individual's personal data.

32. A person who is not a party to this Subscription Agreement may not, in its own right or otherwise, enforce any term of this Subscription Agreement except that the Partnership, the General Partner, the Managing Partner, the Management Company and each of their respective principals, managers, officers, directors, stockholders, employees and agents and their respective Affiliates, may in their own right enforce the provisions of this Subscription Agreement, subject to any applicable law. Notwithstanding any other term of this Subscription Agreement, the consent of any person who is not a party to this Subscription Agreement is not required for any amendment to, or variation, release, rescission or termination of this Subscription Agreement.

33. This Subscription Agreement or any term hereof may not be changed, waived, discharged or terminated except with in writing by the Subscriber and the General Partner.

34. This Subscription Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Subscriber and its successors but shall not be assignable by the Subscriber without the prior written consent of the General Partner. Appendix – Definitions

Note: These are selected definitions provided to assist you with the completion of this form. Further details can be found within the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (the CRS") and the associated Commentary to the CRS. This can be found at the following link OECD site.

If you have any questions about these definitions or require further detail then please contact your tax adviser or local tax authority.

"Account Holder" The term "Account Holder" means the person listed or identified as the holder of a Financial Account. A person, other than a Financial Institution, holding a Financial Account for the benefit of another person as an agent, a custodian, a nominee, a signatory, an investment advisor, an intermediary, or as a legal guardian, is not treated as the Account Holder. In these circumstances that other person is the Account Holder. For example in the case of a parent/child relationship where the parent is acting as a legal guardian, the child is regarded as the Account Holder. With respect to a jointly held account, each joint holder is treated as an Account Holder.
"Controlling Person" This is a natural person who exercises control over an entity. Where an entity Account Holder is treated as a Passive Non-Financial Entity ("NFE") then a Financial Institution must determine whether such Controlling Persons are Reportable Persons. This definition corresponds to the term "beneficial owner" as described in Recommendation 10 and the Interpretative Note on Recommendation 10 of the Financial Action Task Force Recommendations (as adopted in February 2012). If the account is maintained for an entity of which the individual is a Controlling Person, then the "Controlling Person tax residency self-certification" form should be completed instead of this form.
"Entity" The term "Entity" means a legal person or a legal arrangement, such as a corporation, organisation, partnership, trust or foundation.
"Financial Account" A Financial Account is an account maintained by a Financial Institution and includes: Depository Accounts; Custodial Accounts; Equity and debt interest in certain Investment Entities; Cash Value Insurance Contracts; and Annuity Contracts.
"Participating Jurisdiction" A Participating Jurisdiction means a jurisdiction with which an agreement is in place pursuant to which it will provide the information required on the automatic exchange of financial account information set out in the Common Reporting Standard and that is identified in a published list.
"Reportable Account" The term "Reportable Account" means an account held by one or more Reportable Persons or by a Passive NFE with one or more Controlling Persons that is a Reportable Person "Reportable Jurisdiction" A Reportable Jurisdiction is a jurisdiction with which an obligation to provide financial account information is in place and that is identified in a published list.
"Reportable Person" A Reportable Person is defined as an individual who is tax resident in a Reportable Jurisdiction under the tax laws of that jurisdiction. Dual resident individuals may rely on the tiebreaker rules contained in tax conventions (if applicable) to solve cases of double residence for purposes of determining their residence for tax purposes.
"TIN" (including "functional equivalent") The term "TIN" means Taxpayer Identification Number or a functional equivalent in the absence of a TIN. A TIN is a unique combination of letters or numbers assigned by a jurisdiction to an individual or an Entity and used to identify the individual or Entity for the purposes of administering the tax laws of such jurisdiction. Further details of acceptable TINs can be found at the OECD automatic exchange of information portal. Page 8 of 8

Some jurisdictions do not issue a TIN. However, these jurisdictions often utilise some other high integrity number with an equivalent level of identification (a "functional equivalent"). Examples of that type of number include, for individuals, a social security/insurance number, citizen/personal identification/service code/number, and resident registration number.
