In addition, Subscriber shall promptly provide to the Partnership or its nominee such information, documentation or certification as may be requested by the General Partner to determine whether withholding may be required with respect to the Subscriber's Partnership Interest or in connection with tax filings in any jurisdiction in which or through which the Partnership invests, directly or indirectly, including any information or certification required for the Partnership or its subsidiaries (or any other entity in which the Partnership directly or indirectly invests or any parallel fund or alternative investment vehicle) to comply with any tax return, information filing, information exchange or reporting requirements (including, without limitation, obligations under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), the OECD Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information in Tax Matters – the Common Reporting Standard ("CRS") and any associated guidance and any inter-governmental agreements, treaty, regulation, guidance, standard or other agreement between the Cayman Islands (or any Cayman Islands government body), and any other jurisdiction (including any government bodies in such jurisdiction) entered into, or which will be entered into to comply with, facilitate, supplement or implement FATCA or CRS (together, "AEOI")) or to obtain a reduced rate of, or exemption from, any applicable tax, whether pursuant to the laws of such jurisdiction or an applicable tax treaty. Such information may include, without limitation, information regarding the ultimate beneficial owners of Subscriber, and forms and documentation which the General Partner may require to determine whether or not the relevant investment of the Subscriber is a "US Reportable Account" (or equivalent under any other AEOI regime) and to comply with the relevant due diligence procedures in making such determination. Subscriber hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Partnership and the General Partner may provide any such information, documentation or certifications to any applicable tax authority, including, without limitation, the IRS and/or the U.S. Treasury, the Cayman Islands Tax Information Authority (or any other Cayman Islands governmental body which collects information in accordance with FATCA or CRS) and to any withholding agent where the provision of such information is required by such agent to avoid the application of any withholding tax on any payments to the Partnership. Subscriber waives, and/or shall cooperate with the Partnership and the General Partner to obtain a waiver of, the provisions of any law which prohibits (i) the disclosure by the Partnership or any Indemnified Person of the information or documentation requested from the Subscriber pursuant to this paragraph and/or (ii) the reporting of financial or account information by the Partnership or any Indemnified Person required pursuant to AEOI, or otherwise prevents compliance by the Partnership with its obligations under AEOI. Without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, Subscriber hereby acknowledges that all amounts to be contributed by him, her or it to the Partnership have been, or will have been, prior to the time in which such funds are contributed to the Partnership, reported to all appropriate tax authorities, including the Subscriber's jurisdiction of residency and all taxes that have been, or are due, as of the date hereof, have been paid in full by the Subscriber.

22. Israeli Tax Ruling. The General Partner is authorized to approach (or to authorize another Person to approach) the Tax Authority of the State of Israel (the "Israeli Tax Authority") and apply for, and negotiate the terms of one or more tax ruling letters with respect to the taxation of the Partnership in Israel (each, an "Israeli Tax Ruling"). The General Partner shall be authorized to implement and comply with any Israeli Tax Rulings granted, if granted, to the Partnership, including providing information, as required, to the Israeli Tax Authority, with respect to the Partnership and any of its Partners, and require any Partner to make such certifications in writing or otherwise, and to require any Partner to provide information as may be required under, or in order to apply for, obtain, or to comply with, any Israeli Tax Ruling, and each Partner shall be obligated to timely comply with all such requirements. It is hereby clarified that the General Partner need not consult with, nor obtain the approval of, any Partner with respect to any of the terms of any Israeli Tax Ruling. For the avoidance of doubt, each Partner acknowledges and understands that the issuance of an Israeli Tax Ruling and its terms are in the sole discretion of the Israeli Tax Authority. Each Partner further acknowledges that receipt of the Israeli Tax Ruling is not a condition to any closing, and there is no guarantee that the Israeli Tax Ruling will be provided, nor what would be the terms thereof (or that its terms would not change in the future).

23. Miscellaneous. Subscriber shall pay Subscriber's own expenses relating to this Subscription Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Neither this Subscription Agreement nor any term hereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated except with the written consent of Subscriber and the General Partner. This Subscription Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, a person's execution and delivery of this Subscription Agreement by electronic signature and electronic transmission, including via DocuSign or other similar method, shall constitute the execution and delivery of a counterpart of this Subscription Agreement by or on behalf of such person and the parties to this Subscription Agreement shall be entitled to rely on any such electronic signature for the purposes of the Electronic Transactions Act (As Revised) of the Cayman Islands. The interpretation and enforceability of this Subscription Agreement and all amendments hereto shall be governed by the laws of the Cayman Islands, without regard to conflict of law principles. To the extent permitted by the ELP Act and other applicable law, the provisions of this Subscription Agreement shall supersede any contrary provisions of the ELP Act or other applicable law. In the event any provision of this Subscription Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severed from the remainder of this Subscription Agreement and replaced with a valid and enforceable provision as similar in intent as reasonably possible to the provision so severed, and shall not cause the invalidity or unenforceability of the remaining portion of this Subscription Agreement. The headings in this Subscription Agreement are for convenience of reference, and shall not by themselves determine the meaning of this Subscription Agreement or of any part hereof.
